

James Watt & the Avenues are a professional-sounding Surf Instrumental 3-piece, specialising in reverb-drenched instrumental 'Surf' style guitar-riff songs that evoke the sound of crashing waves and warmer climes and covering songs from the early days of rock and roll.

Playing the likes of Hawaii 5-0, Rumble, Miserlou and a host of other Surf instrumental and sung classics (commonly used by the likes of Tarantino, UK advertising, etc.), JW&TAs add a unique flavour to any festival or event to get people dancing, froogin' and faux-surfing.

Can you honestly not pretend to 'Surf' when you hear Hawaii 5-0?

JW&TAs also specialise in the niche of mashing up classic surf and instrumental songs with popular well-known and new wave songs, giving listeners the musical equivalent of a Quality Street selection.

Come see, sway, dance and surf to the brightest band on your stage!
